ORDER

AND NOW, this 27th day of May, 2021, upon consideration of: Plaintiff's motions to compel production of documents in connection with its notices of deposition of Defendant's claims adjuster and corporate designee;[1] Defendant's objections to the notices of deposition and accompanying briefs; Defendant's submission of its updated privilege log; after telephone conferences regarding the discovery disputes on October 6, 2020 and October 8, 2020; and after in camera review of disputed materials, IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff's motions to compel are GRANTED in part and DENIED in part as follows:

1. Defendant shall produce complete and unredacted copies of the reserve information (Bates 42, 187-88) and ISO Claim Search Report (Bates 1786-1790).

2. Defendant shall produce unredacted versions of any entries prior to August 26, 2019 on the Evaluation Report for Plaintiff's claim. (Bates 204-211, 214-253).

3. Defendant shall produce unredacted versions of any entries prior to August 26, 2019 on the Internal File Notes that are not subject to attorney-client privilege.

4. Defendant shall produce the above referenced material no later than fourteen (14) days before the deposition of claims adjuster, Daniele Smith.

5. All other information noted on Defendant's privilege log is properly withheld and thus need not be produced to Plaintiff.

[1] In accordance with the undersigned's policies and procedures, Plaintiff submitted its motions to compel via email with letter memoranda outlining the discovery disputes.

6. The first matter for examination described in the deposition notice of the corporate designee shall be limited in scope as discussed in the accompanying memorandum.
